Gymnastic Exercises with Topologies Relating to Time-Scale Assumptions

Heinz A Preisig
Department of Chemical Engineering; NTNU; Trondheim, Norway

Abstract
The graphical representation of a compartmental network is a powerful tool to discuss the properties of the process model it represents. Refinement as well as simplifications can be done by a set of simple manipulations such as splitting of capacities into subnets and lumping. Main arguments are time-scale based.